

Northern Nashville Country Music Club, Thurso wants to let members and guests know of their up and coming club events so you don't miss out on these live country music shows. Firstly we are getting geared up to stage our Christmas Shows on Friday 9th and Saturday 10th of December in the Royal British Legion Clubrooms.

The star of both shows will be Stephen Smyth from Portaferry, County Down in Northern Ireland, who is regarded as one of the country's most versatile singers and musicians on the music scene, being an expert on lead & steel guitar, saxophone, fiddle and accordion.

Stephen served his apprenticeship in the backing bands of some of Ireland's top artistes including Philomena Begley, Dominic Kirwan, The Indians & Declan Nerney. Stephen and his Band have the enthusiasm to get the crowd going and the dance floor heaving by playing a great selection of Country, Irish and popular music ensuring everyone has a cracking night; as you know from Stephen's past visits to the club.

--Yes a big man with a big personality, big voice and huge talent --

Supporting Stephen on Friday night will be the very popular duo FlamZe from the Elgin area. Lenny & Mike have only been together as a duo for a short time but between them they have a wealth of experience and talent making it easy to see why they are in demand for clubs and festivals across Scotland. The duo always goes down a storm in the club so it's great to have them back as part of our Christmas Shows.

Fridays Show commences at 8.00pm, Saturday at 9.00pm both nights will be straight on with the dancing and lots of fun so why not come along and join in, great way to spend your Christmas nights out, we will reserve a table for block bookings so you can have a meal out first still get a table all together.

To start 2017 off with a bang and celebrate Old New Year, NNCMC will be presenting their first show of the year on Friday January 13th. The entertainment will be provided by Matt Leavy and Mike Devine.

Matt has been singing professionally for some time now and growing up in a musical family he says "music has been part of my life since I could walk". Leavy has played at Wembley on the same bill as Johnny Cash and Tammy Wynette and more recently also lined up alongside George Jones & Randy Travis.

Joining Matt another first timer in the club who has also played on the Wembley stage will be Mike Devine. A native of Scotland Mike has entertained around the country for many years his brand of music is essentially country but he also includes Scottish, Irish, music from the 60's along with some modern numbers.

--Sounds just the tonic needed to beat these January blues--
